Skateboarding

Skateboarding is a lot of fun. Surfers began the sport more than sixty years ago. They wanted something interesting to do when the waves were small. They pulled the wheels off roller skates and put them on pieces of wood.	13 24 37 40
Today's boards are much better than the early ones. The wheels roll and turn more easily and last much longer. Skateboards now come in many shapes and sizes and are sold all over the world.	52 63 75
Early skateboarders used sidewalks, streets, and empty swimming pools to try jumps, spins, and other tricks. As skateboarding has become more popular, many towns and cities have built skate parks. Skate parks give skateboarders a safe place to work on their skills while they meet other fans of the sport.	83 94 105 117 125
