

Educational Technology and Online Learning Grade 3 Internet Safety Rubric

Criteria	4	3	2	1	Score
Students will communicate three websites that are appropriate for children, give a description of each website, and provide reasons why the websites are safe for children.	The student was able to communicate three websites that are appropriate for children, gave a description of the websites, and provided reasons why the websites are safe for children (e.g., Fact Monster™, Discovery Education™, PBS KIDS, websites that end in .gov).	The student was able to communicate two websites that are appropriate for children, gave a description of the websites, and provided reasons why the websites are safe for children.	The student was able to communicate one website that is appropriate for children, gave a description of the website, and provided reasons why the website is safe for children.	The student was unable to communicate three websites that are appropriate for children, give a description of each website, and provide reasons why the websites are safe for children.	/4
Students will communicate three tips to follow to stay safe on the Internet.	The student was able to communicate three tips to follow to stay safe on the Internet. The rules reflect a strong understanding of personal safety.	The student was able to communicate two tips to follow to stay safe on the Internet.	The student was able to communicate one tip to follow to stay safe on the Internet.	The student did not communicate any tips to follow to stay safe on the Internet.	/4
Students will communicate three tips about being a good cyber citizen in the online community.	The student was able to communicate three tips about being a good cyber citizen in the online community. The ideas addressed netiquette, cyberbullying, positive online identity, and/or intellectual property.	The student was able to communicate two tips about being a good cyber citizen in the online community.	The student was able to communicate one tip about being a good cyber citizen in the online community.	The student was unable to communicate any tips about being a good cyber citizen in the online community.	/4
Students will demonstrate adding a text box and relevant clip art images to all three slides.	The student was able to add a text box and a relevant clip art image to all three slides. The clip art images support the ideas presented.	The student was able to add a text box and a relevant clip art image to two slides.	The student was able to add a text box and a relevant clip art image to one slide.	The student was unable to add text boxes or relevant clip art images.	/4
Comments:					Total
					/16